The essential resource for high school athletic directors

NIAAA’s Guide to Interscholastic Athletic Administration presents an overview of high school sport administration from experienced athletic administrators across the United States. This resource help readers better understand the athletic director’s multifaceted role and confront several challenges they face:

- Providing comprehensive professional preparation for athletic director candidates and continuing education for today’s athletic directors
- Aligning the goals of athletic programs and the conduct of coaches, athletes, and parents engaged in the program to the educational mission of the school, district, state, and national governing organizations
- Ensuring ongoing education in vital areas including student citizenship, staff support, safety, risk management and budget preparation
- Making consistent efforts to provide equitable opportunities for participation and accommodate the abilities and interests of all student-athletes
