Each varsity team of AAA member schools may participate in ONE interscholastic benefit game that does not count toward the season limitation for that sport. The school must agree to give the stated percentage of proceeds from such benefit events to the AAA Catastrophe Insurance Fund.

SPORT REQUIREMENTS: BENEFIT GAMES MAY NOT BEGIN PRIOR TO 5:30 pm ON WEEKDAYS

- Football games may be played beginning Week #7 or Week #8.
- Basketball games for non-football playing schools may be played beginning Week #15 or any time during the regular season.
- Basketball games for football playing schools may be played on Saturday immediately following the last regular season football playing date or anytime during the regular basketball season.
- Volleyball matches/games may be played beginning Week #7 or any time during the regular season.

SPORT REQUIREMENTS: BENEFIT GAMES MAY NOT BEGIN PRIOR TO 3:30 pm ON WEEKDAYS

- Baseball and Softball games may be played beginning Week #34 or any time during the regular season.
- Soccer matches may be played beginning Week #34 or any time during the regular season.
- Wrestling matches may begin Week #19 or any time during the regular season.

NUMBER OF GAMES OR MATCHES: TEAMS MAY ONLY PLAY THE EQUIVALENT OF ONE GAME OR MATCHES

Teams may play only one game or portion of a game per VARSITY (jr. boys-jr. girls) squads allowed. NO JR. VARSITY OR 7th and/or 8th grade team games.

Baseball, Softball, Soccer, Football and Basketball Jamborees, where several schools play each other a portion of a game, are permissible provided no school plays more than the equivalent of a full game.

Volleyball Jamborees, where several schools play each other a portion of a match, are permissible provided no player participates in more than five games.

Wrestling Jamborees, where several schools play each other a portion of a match, are permissible provided no wrestler competes in more than the equivalent of two, six minute matches.

PROCEEDS: ALL AAA PASSES SHALL BE HONORED FOR ADMITTANCE

At least 80% of the gross gate admissions must be sent to the AAA office. Up to 20% may be deducted for expenses such as ticket takers, sellers, security, or visiting team travel. A financial accounting form must be completed and returned within 10 days of the game.

NOTE: Expenses must be taken from the school's 20%. General admission shall be $4.00 for adults and students.
