Each varsity team of AAA member schools may participate in ONE interscholastic benefit game that does not count toward the season limitation for that sport. The school must agree to give the stated percentage of proceeds from such benefit events to the AAA Catastrophe Insurance Fund.

SPORT REQUIREMENTS

- Football games may be played only during Week #8 and shall not start before 5:30 on weekdays.
- Basketball games for non-football playing schools may be played during Week #15 or any time during the regular season.
- Basketball games for football playing schools may only be played during the regular basketball season or on the Saturday immediately following the last regular season football playing date.
- For All Basketball Benefit Events: When playing only one game, play may not begin before 6:30 p.m. on school nights. When two games (jr. high and/or sr. high) are played on the same night, play may not begin before 5:30 p.m. on school nights. Jamborees involving three or more schools may not begin before 5:30 p.m. on school nights.
- Volleyball matches/games may be played from Week #7 or any time during the regular season. Volleyball games may not begin before 5:30 pm on weekdays.
- Baseball and Softball games may be played from Week #33 or any time during the regular season and may not begin before 3:30 pm on weekdays.
- Soccer matches may be played from Week #31 or any time during the regular season, and may not begin before 3:30 pm on weekdays.
- Wrestling matches may begin Week #19 or any time during the regular season and may not begin before 3:30 pm on weekdays.

NUMBER OF GAMES OR MATCHES

There shall be only one game or portion of a game per varsity (sr. boys, jr. boys, sr. girls, jr. girls) squad allowed. NO JR. VARSITY OR "B" TEAM GAMES.

Baseball, Softball, Soccer, Football and Basketball Jamborees, where several schools play each other a portion of a game, are permissible provided no school plays more than the equivalent of a full game.

Volleyball Jamborees, where several schools play each other a portion of a match, are permissible provided no player participates in more than five games.

Wrestling Jamborees, where several schools play each other a portion of a match, are permissible provided no wrestler competes in more than the equivalent of two, six minute matches.

PROCEEDS

At least 80% of the gross gate admissions must be sent to the AAA office. Up to 20% may be deducted for expenses such as ticket takers, sellers, security, or visiting team travel. A financial accounting form must be completed and returned within 10 days of the game.

NOTE: Expenses must be taken from the school's 20%. General admission shall be $4.00 for adults and students.

All AAA passes shall be honored for admittance.

OUT OF STATE BENEFIT GAMES

Schools must guarantee the following amounts to the AAA Catastrophic insurance fund in order to play a benefit game out of state: Football – Classes 7A, 6A, 5A - $1000; Classes 4A, 3A, 2A - $800; Basketball – all classes $500; Volleyball, Baseball, Softball, Soccer and Wrestling – all Classes $300.
